

Working woodlands project

The Working Woodlands project is working with landowners to bring 120 hectares of unmanaged private woodlands back into active management in the New Forest.

For more information about the project contact Tom Murphy
01590 646692
Or tom.murphy@nflandadvice.org.uk

Our Past, Our Future
Working together for the New Forest

Conservation and Rural Skills Training Opportunity

Learn how to correctly manage your woodland habitat in the New Forest

Woodland management

Wednesday 16 November

9am - 4.30pm, Boldre and Roydon Woods

Learn how to correctly manage your woodland habitat in the New Forest

This course will cover; woodland types, woodland ecology and habitat enhancement, management systems and building resilient woodlands, regulations, pests and diseases and timber products.

Meet: Boldre War Memorial Hall, Pilley Street, Boldre, Lymington, Hampshire, SO41 5QG

Bring: Lunch, drinks, sturdy footwear, waterproofs.

Course costs £12, places limited to 16 participants, and under 18s must be accompanied by an adult

Booking essential

Visit - www.nflandadvice.org.uk/training
Or contact Richard Austin on 01590 646661 or richard.austin@nflandadvice.org.uk